Course Web Page: <http://philosophy.ucdavis.edu/matthey/phi151/index.html>

Course Requirements: There will be a final examination comprising 40% of the grade and two papers, each to be weighted 30%. The final will be in-class and will consist of short-answer questions. The two papers will be roughly 1500-word analyses of on assigned topics. All work must be completed for the course to be passed. Late papers will be docked one level (e.g., A- to B+) per two working days late. If, without prior permission, the final examination is not taken at the scheduled time or any paper is delinquent at the time of the final, a grade of F will be assigned for the course. Permission from the instructor must be obtained to be assigned the grade Incomplete.
